

Say Hello to Morgan

MORE PHOTOS!

At just over 10-weeks-old, our new puppy has taken over our lives so it is only appropriate she is taking over this month's newsletter. We are so pleased how much Brooklyn adores her and how much she adores Brooklyn. They play together really well and enjoy sleeping with one another.

Her registered show name likely will be "NMK's Morgan Orion-Princess in the Skye." Yes, Morgan is a town in Wisconsin. Since Brooklyn and Dakota's middle names have a similar theme (Skye and Dawn) I wanted something similar for Morgan's middle name. I came up with Orion. Her breeder started calling her "princess" so I decided to include that name (especially it speaks to her being a girl) and because she is showing a lot of the same characteristics as Dakota, I included "Skye" as part of her registered name.

Morgan now understands "Leave it," "Go Potty," "Go Outside," "Let's Go," "This Way," "Sit," "No Bite," "Kisses," and "Wait." We are just now working on "Come," "Down," and "Stay." She really likes to root and burrow thus she loves Brooklyn's Cozy Cave. She enjoys running in our field and woods and even, when at the far end of our property, knows her way back to the house.

In the top photo above, she is pointing a bird at the Hastings Island Hunting Preserve, a unexpected hunt training opportunity her breeder is providing. Hunting is not likely in our future but the chance to get her out (twice now) at such a young age with other dogs & people is awesome!

Robert and I are totally enjoying Morgan!

Rare Moments of Drawing

It is rare I draw anymore. After my art exhibit over a year ago and a bunch of resulting commissions, I really burned out on drawing. Just the same, my Etsy Shop remains open and in late December, even though I stopped advertising, someone found my shop to ask me to do a drawing of this terrier as a gift for her parents. Not the best time to buckle down to draw what with the holidays and then a new puppy arriving. Somehow, even with so much going on, especially Morgan arriving, I completed the drawing and was able to deliver it on time!
