

Robert the Builder

In the past few weeks, Robert has spent a lot of time over at his sister Kim's house building a special area for her cats to hang out in enabling them to be safely outdoors. Kim calls these new digs for her four cats a "catio." The space includes shelves to climb on, a ramp, a cat door for the cats to go in and out of Kim's house, and a door big enough for Kim to go inside the catio to hang out with her cats.

Dakota's Turn to Show Off

On February 3rd, I took Dakota to a freestyle (dog dancing) fun match in San Jose. With all the freestyle classes Dakota and I have taken, this was a wonderful opportunity to perform in a competition size ring and to have our performance videotaped. Dakota had so much fun as did I dancing to "The Stardancer" by David Arkenstone. See for yourself: Video can be viewed at: <https://youtu.be/3bUDzAUGTMo>

Sierra is Now Eight!

Turning eight on February 5th, the day before my birthday, Sierra organized an ice-skating theme birthday party complete with her and her friends going to an ice-skating rink followed by a sleep-over. She also made a piñata in the shape of an ice skate!

For Me

February 6th marked my 72nd birthday! For my birthday, I enjoyed a cake (decorated by Sierra & Aubrey) for both Sierra and I, lots of presents from Kathy and crew, and a beautiful bouquet of flowers from Chris.
