

These three are pleased Grandpa let them buy these little bitty pumpkins after an outing at nearby Stanly Lane Pumpkin Patch.

All three kids now spend one afternoon a week at our house. This year, they have a half day of school every Wednesday wherein we pick them up from their classes. What a wonderful bonus for Grandma and Grandpa! We didn't expect to see them all that often once Sierra started kindergarten.

Soccer Buds

Sierra, Aubrey, and Rylan—all three are soccer players! This month wraps up their soccer season for the year.

Main Street in Napa

Kathy posing in front of the Napa Tree Moose in its new home at Downtown Joe's Brewery & Restaurant.

Fish Afloat

The tarp covers for the pool cover are NOW complete and boy, do they work great! Robert is shown here zip tying a fish decorated tarp cover to one of two PVC frames he built earlier this year.

Not only am I very pleased to announce the Napa Tree Moose Coffee Table Book is now a done deal, I am thrilled to have had it written up in our local newspaper! More details and link to article can be found at: www.napatreemoose.com/.

The Napa Tree Moose book is NOW published!