

Happy Halloween!

Brooklyn being a pumpkin at local dog club Halloween party.

Morgan & her ribbons from Barn Hunt Open Trial

a lot of fun looking for rats almost getting all four she was supposed to find in 2.5 minutes.

Tripping:

On a 11-day trip north, we spent our first weekend at Kathy and Tim's. While there, Robert helped Tim finish a shed they started building last year. Between the weekends, we spent time in Bellingham just for Mom and doing some yard cleanup at her house.

Partying:

On September 30th, we held a special birthday party for Mom at the nursing home where she now lives. There were lots of goodies, drinks, guests, and a bouquet of colorful balloons to make this event very festive!

Inking:

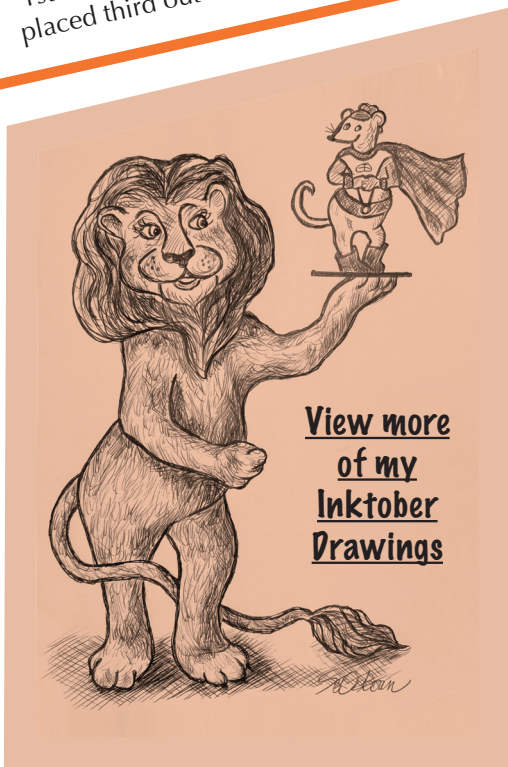

This is the fourth year

I have joined Inktober. Each October I take a different approach, either doing my own thing or following the official prompt list of suggested words for each day. I just finished the drawing shown below for day 21 for the prompt "Hero."

Trialing:

Both Brooklyn and Morgan were entered in two barn hunt trials each. Of Morgan's two trials, she qualified in one to earn her 1st leg of three toward an open title and placed third out of nine dogs. Brooklyn had

View more of my Inktober Drawings

A VERY Special Birthday Celebration

Look who turned 98
September 30th!

VIEW PARTY PHOTOS