

Sue's News & Views

Shorts from my world

Visit osborncountry.com for more photos.

November 25, 2018

Drum Roll...

Introducing CH Lahrheim's Brooklyn Dawn!

In November of 2017, Brooklyn received her first points toward her championship at the Wine Country Classic Dog Shows here in Napa. This year, again at the Wine Country Classic, she became a champion by earning (over the past year) a total of 15 points and two majors (a major is 3 points or more in one day). And, she won Best of Breed on the day she received her first major, a 4 point one.

I entered Brooklyn all four days at the Wine Country Classic this year. After becoming a new champion the first day, she went on to earn three Grand Champion points and, as a champion, was awarded her first Best of Breed!

I am having so much fun showing Brooklyn, I am considering going for her Grand Championship (an additional 25 points & five majors).

We enjoyed Thanksgiving in Oregon this year. Robert, Chris, and I drove up to Tim and Kathy's house on Monday, November 19th.

Next day, Tuesday, was a pie and cookie making day then game night with Dave, Stacey, Ashley, and Arya joining us. Wednesday we enjoyed shopping at Michael's to find craft items to create Thanksgiving decor. Later, more baking.

Thanksgiving Day, we headed to Dave and Stacey's, just minutes away from Tim and Kathy's for a day of visiting, game-playing, family photos, and good food. Friday was an outing to Bob's Red Mill—what a surprise to discover how many grain and related products are made and shipped all over the world from this one and only location of Bob's Red Mill!

Yesterday, Saturday, we had plans to hike to Multnomah Falls. So many other people had the same idea thus there was nowhere to park. Instead we checked out and hiked Beacon Rock in Washington!

Today we drove home.

Photos from our Thanksgiving Week: flickr.com/photos/susiegramma/

In a new location, on new teams, same enthusiastic soccer players!

Aubrey is becoming quite the violinist. We enjoyed seeing her play in person!

Video of her playing is at: www.flickr.com/photos/susiegramma/