

WISHING YOU A PURR-FECT, TAIL WAGGING, and LOVELY CHRISTMAS

Bygone to Traditional Christmas Cards

This year we are joining the growing trend to forgo mailing out Christmas cards, This edition of Sue's News and Views is taking the place of a Christmas card. Each month, I publish a newsletter highlighting our latest news. To find out what we have been up to this year, scan the QR code or go to osborncountry.com/2025/.

LATEST NEWS:

A few weeks ago, we had our driveway repaved, much needed after 43 years of wear and tear!

Brooklyn and I have completed our last Dogs Can Dance® routine toward a Dogs Can Dance Championship (circus themed). Of course this is all dependent on both this routine and the one we submitted in early November both receiving a passing score.

I have officially retired from the Napa Valley Dog Training Club after 20+ years of service as a webmaster, newsletter editor and secretary almost from day 1. Plus I served 1 year as vice president & 1 year as president.

The dog club honored me with gifts and a lifetime membership
